March Against Hunger

Guess where you need to be on the ninth of March? Marching, at the March against Hunger! Well, not really, marching is not one of the activities going on at this event, but just about anything fun (besides marching) will be at your leisure on March 9th, from 7pm to 7am. Bring your friends, bring your cousins, bring your 11th cousins 15 times removed, bring anyone you want that can fundraise 80 bucks, and is in High school. You can even put them on your own personal team of 8-10 people! Isn't that exciting? Also you need a sponsor for your team (someone 25+, like a teacher or uncle). If your 11th cousin 15 times removed is totally and completely pumped about the March Against Hunger and raises the most money out of any other attendee, that distant cousin wins an iPad 2! The best part of partying all night with all your cousins and friends is knowing that all proceeds go to the Jenks Community Food Bank, an underprivileged food bank that needs a new building.

THE CHEESE

- 1. You throw away the outside and cook the inside. Then you eat the outside and throw away the inside. What did you eat? Corn on the cob
- 2. Waiter, I can't seem to find any oysters in this oyster soup.
Would you expect to find angels in angel cake?
- 3. Waiter, what's this fly doing in my soup?
Um, looks to me to be backstroke, sir...
- 4. Why did the student eat his homework?

The teacher told him it was a piece of cake.

- 5. I trained my dog not to beg at the table. How did you do that?

I let him taste my cooking.

- 6. The customer asked: "Do you serve crabs here?"

"Yes sir," replied the waiter. "We'll serve just about anybody."

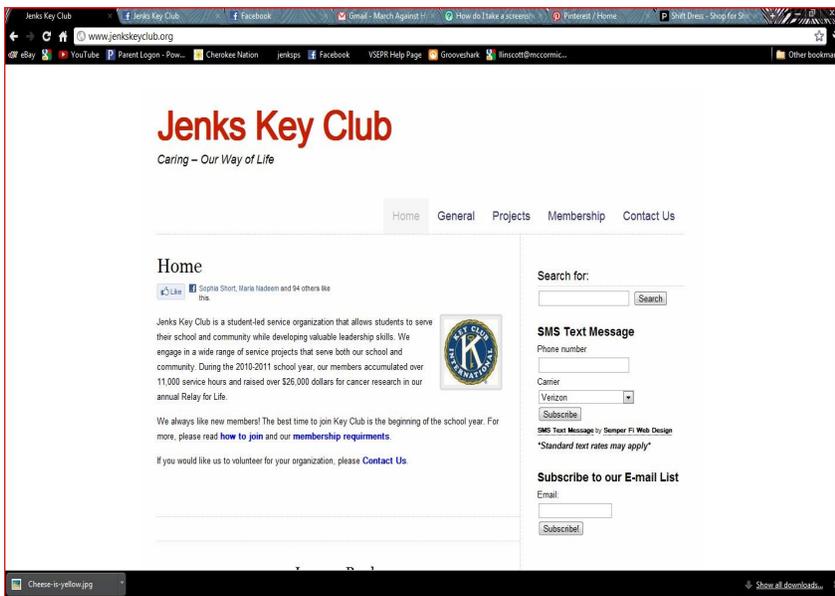

- 7. What's the worst thing about being an octopus?

Washing your hands before dinner.

- 8. How does the man in the moon eat his food?

In satellite dishes.
