MAH	March Against Hunger
1	If you don't know about March Against Hunger or have not joined a team, this article is for you!
Pictures	The March Against Hunger is an all-nighter for high school students to attend to raise money for the Jenks Community Food Bank. This night will stuff you with food and work it off for you with the activities that are planned for you. Get creative with the Board Game theme, the gym will be a massive board game! The teams will be competing against each other in various events inspired by students, so they're sure to be fun. Live local bands will play throughout the night along with a dance-a-thon.
